ble Talent Participating

One of the most important events of the musical season will occur tonight in the concert to be given at the Opera House by the Choral Society. This society, numbering the best amateur musicians in the city and drilled by the capable Reginald H. Carter, has attained a high degree of perfection, according to those who have heard the rehearsals and is attempting an ambitious program in which it will deserve to succeed. The concert begins at 8:15 o'clock sharp and it is particularly desired that the audience be seated at that time in order not to mar the early numbers by late arrival.

The program has as part one, Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise," with its choruses, solos, duets and recitative parts. Part two comprises a number of secular part songs and quartets by Messrs. J. A. Andrus, J. D. French, M. Brewer and Alfred Horner, Jr. The numbers are: "The Dance," from the Bavarian Highlands, by Edward Edgar; "In the North Land," by Cliffe Forester; "A Winter Song," by F. F. ## "Postum for Mine"

Many a man and woman with coffee troubles has found that Postum is a sure and pleasant way back to health.

A doctor writes:

"I have been using Postum for the last seven or eight years, and think it has had a good deal to do with my looking younger than 55 years of age.

"I recommend it to all my patients, and those who have been using it have only praises for its taste and its good effects on their nervous systems; like me they have given up tea and coffee altogether."

Postum is a pure food-drink made of wheat and a small proportion of molasses—roasted and skilfully blended. It is absolutely free from the coffee drugs, caffeine and tannin—common causes of heart, stomach, liver, kidney and nerve disturbance.

Some people marvel at the benefits from leaving off coffee and using Postum, but there is nothing marvelous about it—only common sense.

Postum now comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be boiled. 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder, requires no boiling. A spoonful stirred in a cup of hot water makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

DANGERS NOT WILLING TO PAY FIDDLER

Consequently Kukui Hall Is Not Open for Social Events
at Present Time

Mrs. D. P. McGregor, proprietress of the Kukui dance hall, who lately had her application for the renewal of her dance hall license refused by the board of supervisors, has not abandoned hope of continuing her "place of amusement," as she phrases it. At the same time she is angry with John Baker, who sent a communication to the board yesterday stating that the Kukui dance hall was running wide open, despite the action of the supervisors in refusing a license to the place. Mrs. McGregor says the dances that have been given lately were purely social, with no charge of admission made; and that had her guests not refused to pay the musicians, who struck when they found no pay coming to them, the social dances would be going on now.

When the board read the communication from Baker yesterday it did not mince words. It seemed to it that the proprietress of the Kukui street dance hall was openly defying it; and to make her understand that she must respect its order, the communication was referred to the police committee and the city and county attorney's office, who are ready to "cast off and provide" at any old time.

But, while all this has happened, Mrs. McGregor let it be known this morning that she has a scheme which will keep the Kukui dance hall running. She won't tell what the scheme is, or when she is to spring it. Yet she says it is coming, and seems quite confident of its success.

F. W. Dohrmann, who recently paid a visit to Honolulu, underwent an operation last Tuesday and, according to advices received here this morning, is progressing splendidly.

While Mr. Dohrmann primarily undertook his trip to Hawaii for the benefit of his health he was compelled to return on the first outgoing steamer, local physicians advising him that he was in a serious condition and that an immediate operation was imperative.

Mr. Dohrmann is a member of the firm of Nathan, Dohrmann & Company of San Francisco, which controls the syndicate of stores of which the W. W. Dimond Company of this city is one.

Instantaneous Success

Two weeks ago London knew nothing of Walker Whiteside. He was not even a name to theater-goers. A few authors and managers knew him as in the front rank of America's character actors, knew that he had built up for himself a sterling reputation, knew that he could get into the skin of a character better than most men who tread the boards. But to the general public he was unknown. Now those who have seen him play David Quixano in Zangwill's "The Melting Pot" are glad to welcome him, to give him of London's best. He deserves it. Introduced without the slightest flourish of trumpets, Walker Whiteside made good at once. The announcements merely said that he would appear in his original part which he had played continuously in America for three years. Three years! Can you realize what it means to play one part for three years before audiences in cosmopolitan New York, in Chicago, in St. Louis, in San Francisco, in Washington? A part that, by its very nature, calls for intense energy, great understanding and vivid sympathy if it is to be convincing? Does London differ so much from the great English speaking people of the United States that it should fail to realize the presence of a great artist? The tumultuous reception given him at the Queen's theater, on Saturday week, is the answer. This picture of the young Jew, dreamer, musician, enthusiast, rejoicing in the opportunities offered by America, may have been imagined by Israel Zangwill; but Walker Whiteside has made it live. If you are interested go and see the play for yourselves. T. P.'s Weekly.

For washing women's hair a New York inventor has patented a rubber bag to hold it, water being admitted through one tube at the top and drained through another at the bottom.

Wealthy Parisians have purchased an entire block of residences in that city and will tear them down to hunt for Roman and Gothic treasures believed to be buried beneath them.

JUDGE PERRY IS COLLECTING DOPE FOR A. A. WILDER?

Liquor Dealers' Association Not Employing Jurist According to Declaration

Former Associate Justice Antonio Perry is investigating the McCarn-McBride case on behalf of A. A. Wilder, according to authoritative report today.

Judge Perry confirmed yesterday the story that he has been questioning witnesses of the affair but declined to give the reason for his activity. A well-defined report this morning had it that the evidence secured by Judge Perry will be turned over to Judge Wilder in case the latter continues his fight on the district attorney, McCarn. Judge Perry is said to have secured the statements of a number of Portuguese witnesses. It is believed that he was not secured directly by Wilder but by friends of the latter who felt that the evidence would be of material use to Wilder.

The story published this morning that Judge Perry was acting on behalf of the Liquor Dealers' Association is declared to be wide of the mark.

JAPAN'S PROTEST ON OIL CONCESSION IN CHINA RENEWED

(By Latest Mail)

PEKING, China. — A second note of protest is said to have been filed with the Pekin government by Japan, through Mr. Yamaza, Japanese minister at Pekin, regarding the nature of the conditions upon which the concession was given by China to the Standard Oil Company to exploit the oil fields in Yenchang and Jehol.

When the agreement was reported to have been concluded the Imperial government instructed Mr. Yamaza to inquire of the Pekin government the conditions of the said agreement. Mr. Sun, minister of foreign affairs, replied at that time that the concession did not grant the Standard Oil Company the right to exploit the oil fields; it was a mutual agreement by China and the United States to undertake the work jointly.

The Japanese minister has, since then, protested to China, but so far the protest has been left unanswered. The second protest is said to be couched in peremptory terms, and China will shortly have to make some definite reply.
